Intellect bolsters South Africa commitment by launching First Principles based eMACH.ai platform for Banks & Financial Institutions

Johannesburg, South Africa, 29 July 2025 - Intellect Design Arena, a global leader in enterprise-grade financial technology renowned for its First Principles approach, Open Finance architecture and Design Thinking ethos, today announced the launch of pilot implementations of its next-generation platform, eMACH.ai, for leading South African banks. This initiative represents a major milestone in the transformation of South Africa’s wholesale banking infrastructure, directly aligning with the National Development Plan (NDP) 2030 and the nation’s broader digital economic ambitions, and reaffirms Intellect’s deepening commitment to partnering with South African institutions in their journey towards a fully digital, inclusive financial ecosystem.

Built by a team of 1,200+ research engineers and powering over 500 banks globally, eMACH.ai enables banks to rapidly reimagine operations, reduce costs, and meet the evolving demands of both corporate and public-sector banking. The platform delivers:

- Composable Microservices – Modular architecture for unmatched agility and scalability
- Advanced AI Capabilities – Real-time decisioning and automation embedded across workflows
- Intelligent Infrastructure – 20%+ operational cost reduction across transaction banking, cash, trade, and payments
- Global Expertise, Local Commitment – A trusted partner in 60+ countries, now scaling impact across Africa

eMACH.ai is aligned with South Africa’s NDP 2030 and Digital Economy Master Plan, offering critical infrastructure to support:

- Public sector modernisation and revenue assurance (e.g. Eskom Collections, School Fee Digitisation, Municipal Payments)
- Embedded financial services for infrastructure projects like Smart Meters
- Frictionless Citizen Payments in informal and cash-heavy segments
- Innovation and skills development through low-code, AI-enabled Banking Platform

As a proud member of the BRICS innovation ecosystem, Intellect brings global expertise and local adaptability. Its South Africa expansion is anchored in long-term partnerships, regulatory alignment, and a deep commitment to national-scale transformation.

“For Intellect, South Africa is not just another market. It is a mission. With our First Principles Thinking-based, most comprehensive, composable and intelligent Open Finance platform, eMACH.ai modernises banking infrastructure at scale. By applying Open Finance Architecture alongside Design Thinking, we drive measurable business impact, streamlining finance workflows, sealing revenue leakages and broadening financial inclusion. This commitment underpins our partnership with South African institutions as they pursue NDP 2030 and the country’s digital economic transformation” said Arun Jain, Chairman and Managing Director, Intellect Design Arena.

“With pilots now live at the leading South African bank, we are committed to co-create a banking ecosystem that is truly agile, resilient and inclusive,” said Manish Maakan, CEO, Intellect Wholesale Banking. Leveraging eMACH.ai, we are compressing transaction lifecycles, strengthening revenue integrity and future-proofing operations across the financial ecosystem. Fusing First Principles Thinking with Design Thinking, we are delivering double-digit efficiency gains, unlocking latent liquidity and extending seamless digital services to every customer segment. Together with our South African partners, Intellect is working towards catalysing sustainable growth, deepening financial inclusion and turning the ambitions of NDP 2030 into reality.”
