Business Highlights

1. The advanced functionality of Intellect is reflected in the revenue distribution, with 54% of the quarter revenues coming from US and Europe.
2. There were sixteen new clients added during the Quarter. Some of the significant wins are:
 - In a signal win establishing the power of Intellect as a payments leader, one of Canada's strongest banks chose iGTB's Payments Services Hub for pre-processing both SWIFT and local Canadian payments and handling file and transaction exceptions.
 - iGTB has also been selected to provide an Automated Credit Proposal System for a leading Middle Eastern Islamic bank using the Customer On-Boarding framework. This will handle credit proposals and so reduce risk, and improve turnaround time.
 - A global bank based in UK is live using the Funds Control Hub from Intellect's iGTB division. The new version will also cover 10 additional European countries.
 - Intellect Digital Treasury was chosen by a leading India based Micro-financing Institution.
 - A leading bank in Middle East, who is an existing customer of Intellect, has chosen Integrated Global Transaction Banking to provide a full coverage solution and especially thereby enriching their payments, collections and liquidity offerings as a one stop shop. The bank doubled its customer base within 9 months of offering this product to its target client base.
 - One of the largest private Mortgage Finance Company in Egypt chose Intellect's Lending product for their Retail Lending and Leasing businesses.
 - A leading bank headquartered in Qatar with extensive operations in Middle East and the North Africa regions has decided to roll out iGTB's Cash Management in Singapore and iGCB's Lending platform in two more countries of operations complementing their existing implementations.
